Mr. Kishor Patil Explores Sustainable Urbanization at Nasscom TLF 2024!

Demystifying Car Software: Dr. Gabriel Seiberth's Insights from CAR Center Symposium!

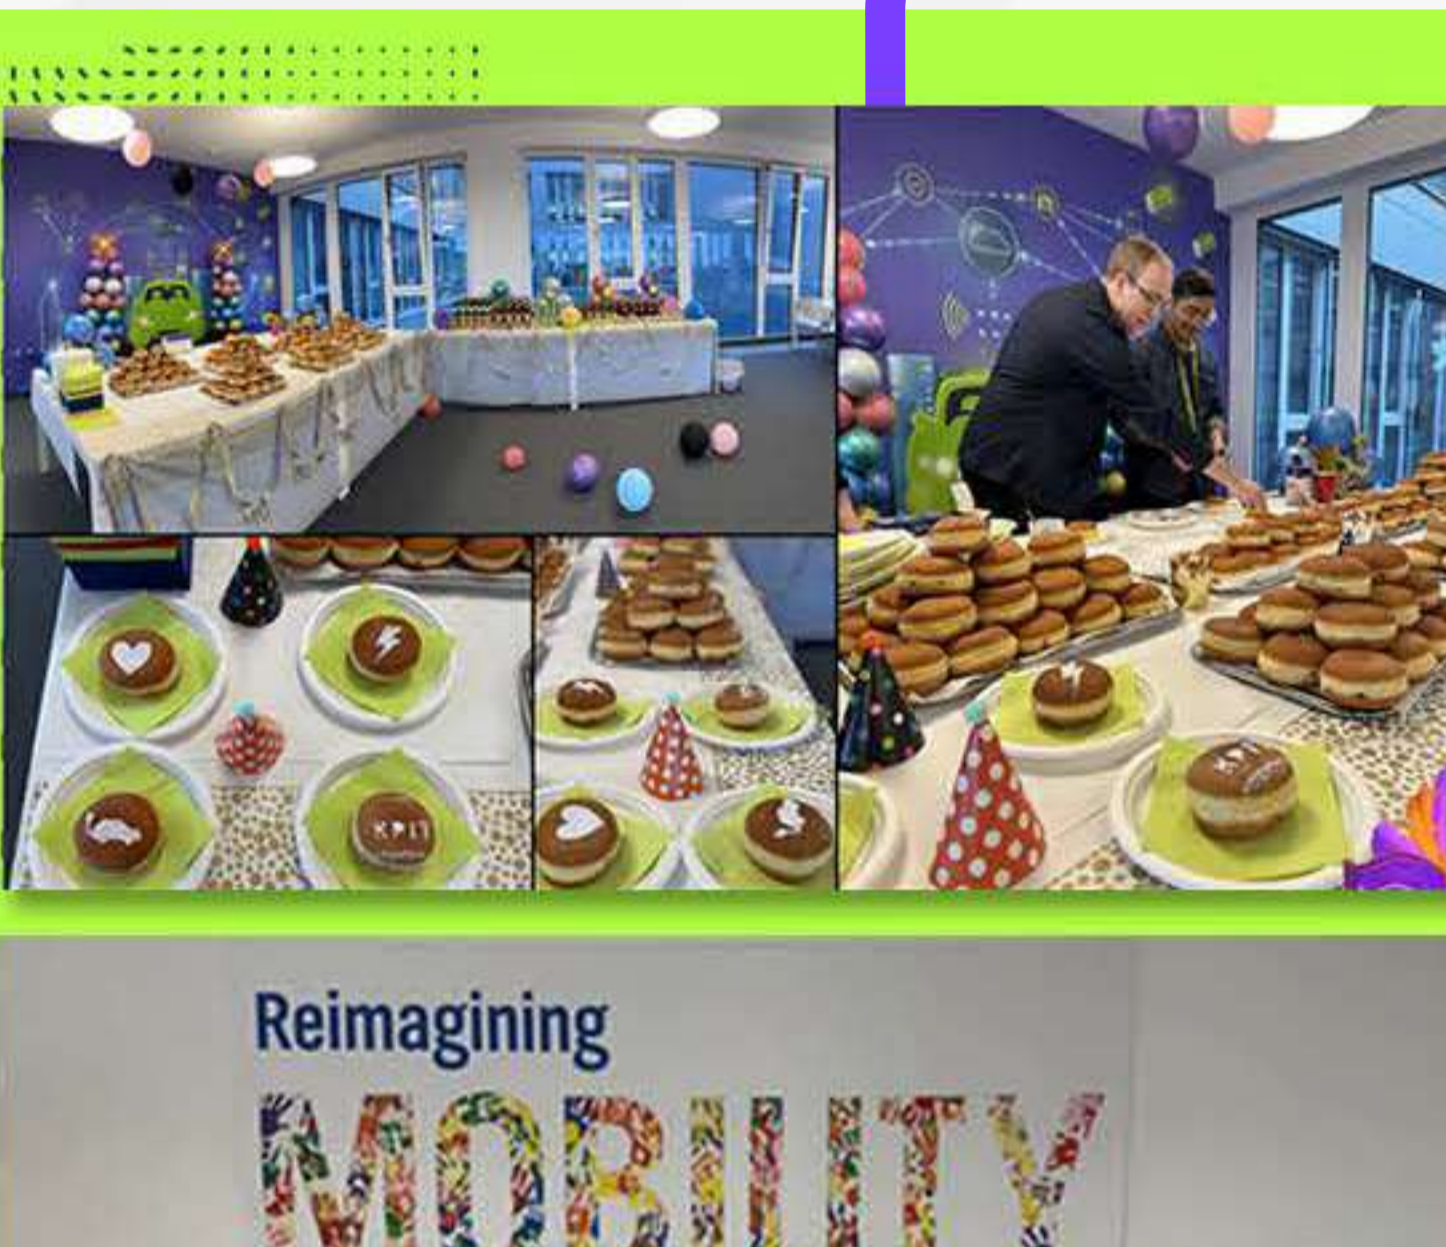

How can we power a sustainable future in growing cities? Mr. Kishor Patil, Co-founder, CEO, & MD of KPIT, tackled this crucial question at the recent Nasscom Technology and Leadership Forum 2024. During his fireside chat on "Tomorrow's Power: Energy Alternatives in Smart Environments," he explored innovative solutions for sustainable energy in urban settings.

Dr. Gabriel Seiberth, President of Europe & Member of the Executive Board at KPIT, brought his expertise to the CAR Center Automotive Research IT Symposium, offering a clear-eyed look at the realities of Software-Defined Vehicles (SDV) in his presentation, "Demystifying Car Software Architectures." He addressed key challenges and opportunities, separating hype from reality to provide valuable insights. Seiberth highlighted the importance of the network as a central control point for data, customer relationships, and monetization. He emphasized the crucial role of maximizing software reuse to achieve faster, more scalable development and reduce costs. His presentation offers a roadmap for navigating the complexities of SDV architecture, prioritizing efficiency and reuse for success.
