Budding Scientists Bloom at KPIT Thailand!

The future is bright in Thailand! KPIT's "Chhote Scientists" program is inspiring young minds at Maepra Fatima School. Recently, we completed another successful session at Maepra Fatima School, where students delved into the fascinating world of pressure, motion, and force through hands-on experiments. From exploring air resistance to understanding buoyancy, our volunteers engaged students with interactive activities like "coin in a cup" and "paper stays dry in water." Here are some snapshots of the activities.
